MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: TAG Policy Letter #27, Waivers and Exception to Policy Requests for Army Regulation 190-11 and Army Regulation 190-51

1. To ensure that Arms, Ammunition and Explosives (AA&E) and Army property meet or exceed the security and accountability standards of AR190-11 and AR 190-51, the following will be implemented:

a. All waivers or exceptions to policy will be submitted through the State Security Specialist. Units will clearly state the reason for the request, duration and compensatory measures to be taken, if needed.

b. The State Security Specialist will review the request ensuring it is a valid request for waiver or exception to policy and no lapse in security exists, make appropriate recommendations and forward to the Chief of Staff for determination.

c. Approval level for waivers or exceptions to policy is the Chief of Staff, KSARNG.

2. Approved waivers will be valid for one year. Units requiring a continuation will submit a new written request. Units will state the circumstances for why the original deficiencies were not corrected and include a plan of action to ensure correction.

3. Exceptions to policy will be reviewed annually by the State Security Specialist.

4. Commanders will not approve their own waivers or exceptions to policy.

5. POC is SFC Michael J. Barber, State Security Specialist, 785-274-1125.
