

Russ Tomevi, Director
Public Works/Engineering, City Winfield
Representing the Public Works Services

Russ Tomevi is a native Illinoisan that has lived in South Central Kansas for 34 years. He is a graduate of Bradley University with a B.S. in Construction and has worked for the City of Winfield for the past 26 years. As the Director of Public Works / Engineering, Russ is also responsible for storm water, flood control, and he is the floodplain administrator.

Other organizations that Russ is involved with include: Chairperson of the Walnut Basin Advisory Committee to the Kansas Water Authority since 2007; CASA of Cowley County (Court Appointed Special Advocates for neglected and abused children) Executive Board since 2007 and President since 2008; American Public Works Association - Kansas Chapter Executive Committee for eleven years, in 2007 he served as President and is currently serving as the Treasurer; Member of the Advisory Committee to the Kansas Local Technical Assistance Program (LTAP), which is part of the KU Transportation Center; and he is a member of the South Central Solid Waste Advisory Committee.

Russ has been married to his wife Sandi for 42 years. They have two adult children, a son and a daughter, and five grandchildren ages seven to fourteen.