UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT MAURICE L. WILLIAMS

Chief Master Sergeant Maurice L. Williams is the Command Senior Enlisted Leader for the Kansas National Guard. He represents the highest level of enlisted leadership and serves as the principle advisor to the Adjutant General on matters of health, welfare, morale, professional development, good order, and discipline and the effective employment of the state's approximately 6500 enlisted members of the Kansas Army and Air National Guard. In addition, he offers the enlisted perspective on key defense initiatives such as the State Partnership Program which supports security partnerships across the globe.

Chief Williams entered the North Carolina Air National Guard in 1987. He graduated from the Air Transportation Specialist course at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas in January 1988. He served as the Superintendent of the Small Air Terminal, 145th Logistics Readiness Squadron, where he provided expert leadership and management of all air transportation activities within the Small Air Terminal. Throughout his military career he has deployed in support of Operations IRAQI and ENDURING FREEDOM where he served on the United States European Command Staff and Air Force Central Command Staff. Chief Williams served as the 145th Airlift Wing Command Chief Master Sergeant, co-director of the ANG Chief Master Sergeant Orientation Course and the chairman of the ANG Enlisted Field Advisory Council serving 91,000 enlisted airmen.

Prior to assuming his current assignment Chief Williams was the State Command Chief Master Sergeant of the North Carolina Air National Guard. Chief Williams was selected as the Command Senior Enlisted Leader of the Kansas National Guard in October 2017.
